APPLICATION PACKET & GUIDELINES

Northwoods Habitat for Humanity is an equal opportunity provider and employer.

So you're interested in purchasing a Habitat Home!

We're glad you are thinking about applying for a Habitat home. One wonderful aspect of Habitat for Humanity is that it builds more than houses--it builds decent homes, in decent communities in which people can live and grow into all that God intended.

What is Habitat for Humanity?

Habitat for Humanity International is a non-profit, ecumenical, Christian housing ministry. Habitat for Humanity seeks to eliminate poverty housing and homelessness from the world and to make decent shelter a matter of conscience and action. Habitat invites people from all walks of life to work together in partnership to help build houses with families in need. Habitat, together with families and volunteers, has built thousands of houses around the world, providing over a million people in more than 2000 communities with safe, decent, affordable shelter. Habitat for Humanity was founded in 1976 by Millard Fuller and his wife Linda Fuller.

How does Habitat work?

Volunteers from many walks of life make gifts to Habitat to provide the initial capital. Houses are then built or refurbished for people who do not qualify for conventional bank loans. Most labor is done by volunteers and by the families themselves. Many individuals and businesses contribute time and materials. When the house is completed, the family makes payments which cover the actual cost of the house but without added interest charges. Their monthly house payments go into a revolving fund to help build houses for other families in need. In addition to the payments, each homeowner is responsible for the utilities, maintenance, and other standard housing expenses.
